

ARCHITECTURAL INSTITUTE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

2015 Call for Nominations: AIBC Honorary Membership

The AIBC Council welcomes nominations for AIBC Honorary Membership. This honorary designation recognizes non-architects who have made especially noteworthy contributions to the profession of architecture in British Columbia. To uphold its prestige, this award is sparingly bestowed.

Criteria

Consideration is given to those individuals whose contributions are seen to have significantly advanced the development and standing of the profession. Areas of consideration may include innovation, creativity, education, research, publication and public service. Contributions by way of design excellence or service to the profession must be exceptional and sustained.

Qualifications

The suitability of candidates should be reflected in the answers to the following questions as they apply:

- What is the nature of the outstanding contribution this person has made to the understanding, advancement or the practice of architecture?
- What has this person done to increase awareness and appreciation of the profession of architecture?
- What has this person done to demonstrate outstanding commitment to the profession of architecture?
- What are any relevant and notable accomplishments of the nominee?
- Why do you think this person is an outstanding candidate for honorary membership?

Eligibility & Nomination Process

Award eligibility is open to non-architects who have made especially noteworthy contributions to the profession of architecture in British Columbia. Eligible candidates must be nominated by a minimum of five (5) Architects AIBC or Associates in good standing. Nomination submissions should outline the nominee's suitability in as much detail as possible, including a biographical profile and nomination statement detailing the qualifications and accomplishments of the candidate (minimum 500 words).

Nomination Review Process & Member Vote

All submissions received will be reviewed by the AIBC Recognition Committee to ensure they meet the specified criteria. Recommendations will be forwarded to AIBC Council for its consideration and nomination at the 2015 AIBC Annual Meeting at which a member vote will determine whether or not honorary membership shall be granted.

Nomination Deadline

The nomination package, supported by the original signatures of the five nominators must be received by the AIBC office time stamped before 4:30 p.m. on February 27, 2015. It is recommended that the package be submitted in hard copy to the Executive Director c/o the Nominations Coordinator at the Architectural Institute of British Columbia, 100 – 440 Cambie Street, Vancouver, BC V6B 2N5; however, scanned forms sent by email to groberts@aibc.ca are acceptable.
